Question — What is the character of Mr. Harris for in grity as it has been known to you?

Answer—It is not good, Sir.

The friends of the Air Line Railroad between the City and Boston are still active, and determined to carry the project through.

The receipts of the Madison and Indianapolis Railroad Co. continue to show a very large increase. They were, for April, 1847, $10,006 81, for April 1846, $6,308 90. Increase, $3,697 91, or about 60 per ct.
